- Quizzes may not be made up. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped.
- The final examination may only be taken at the scheduled time. You must not make travel plans that conflict with the final exam schedule.
- Midterm examination may be made up only due to illness on the day of the exam (a doctor's note is required) or by advance arrangement (a written request one week in advance of the exam is required). The instructor reserves the right to deny any advance request for a make-up exam.

Disabilities Statement:

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the instructor privately to discuss specific needs. Please contact the OSU Office for Disability Services for assistance in verifying the need for accommodations and developing accommodation strategies.

Academic Misconduct Statement:

Any student found to have engaged in academic misconduct, as set forth in the Code of Student Conduct Section 3335-23-04, Prohibited Conduct, will be subject to disciplinary action by the university. Academic misconduct is any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the university, or subvert the educational process.

Student Conduct:

Students are expected to abide by the provisions in the Code of Student Conduct. The University's Code of Student Conduct and Sexual Harassment Policy are available on the OSU Web page
