GIVE YOUR MAJOR AN EDGE!

CONFIDENCE
- Get advice from professionals to enter the working world knowing how professionals communicate.

RESPECT
- Practice the communication skills to be taken seriously.

EXPERIENCE
- Work in a community internship tailored to your interests & goals.

Just four classes and an internship.

One class is your 2367 required GEC writing course
One class is Engl 3304: Business & Professional Writing
One class is a writing elective: options from many majors; see website for list
One class is Engl 4150: Cultures of Professional Writing
One final class is the capstone internship Engl 4189: see website for a sample of placements—more sites available

Minors to date include classmates with majors in English, History, Business, Education, Sociology, & Communication.

Ask your major advisor if people in your field use writing. Then come see us.
