

Non-Timber Forest Products:
Income Opportunities and Management Strategies For Ohio Woodland Owners''

When: Friday November 2nd, 2012 — 9:30a.m. to 4:30p.m.

Where: The Vinton Furnace State Experimental Forest
35700 Ball Diamond Rd., Dundas OH, 45634

Who: For Natural Resource Professionals, Forest Landowners, & Outdoor Enthusiasts

Cost: $10 - Lunch included!

Save The Date

Featured Speakers

Dave Apsley - Extension forester and educator with the Ohio State University Forestry Extension Program.

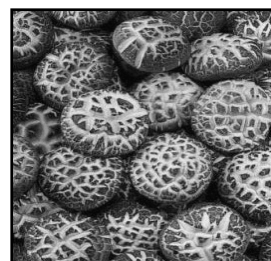

Chip Carroll - American ginseng specialist and owner of WoodlandWise Botanicals.

Tanner Filyaw - Non-Timber Forest Products educator with Rural Action's Sustainable Forestry Program

Janell Baran - Farmer and owner of Blue Owl Garden Emporium and Blue Owl Tree Farm in Newark Ohio.

Scott Bagley - Owner of Light On The Land Services

C.E.U.'s Available for members of the Society of American Foresters!

RSVP to Tanner: 740-767-4938 or by email at tanner@ruralaction.org by October 29, 2012

Workshop Agenda and Activities

9:00-9:30 - Arrival and Welcome

9:30-10:15 - “The Woodland Resource: Managing For Multiple Benefits” presented by Dave Apsley

10:15-11:15 - “Growing American Ginseng and Goldenseal In An Appalachian Hardwood Forest,” presented by Chip Carroll

11:15-12:15 - “Producing and Marketing Gourmet Woodland Mushrooms,” presented by Janell Baran.

12:15-1:00 - Lunch

1:00-1:45- “Ramps: Cultivation for Conservation and Profit,” presented by Tanner Filyaw.

1:45-2:45 - “Producing Natural Hardwood Charcoal From Your Forest,” presented by Scott Bagley.

2:45-3:00- Break

3:00-4:00 - “Woods Walk and Planting Demonstrations”

4:00-4:30 - Close and Departure

Sponsored By:

