

DIALECTICS EAST AND WEST

OSU HUMANITIES INSTITUTE WORKING GROUP

Reason is the certainty of consciousness of being all of reality. –Hegel

Self-Consciousness and Objectivity undermines a foundational dogma of contemporary philosophy: that knowledge, in order to be objective, must be knowledge of something that is as it is, independent of being known to be so. Sebastian Rödl revives the thought--as ancient as philosophy but largely forgotten today--that knowledge, precisely on account of being objective, is self-knowledge: knowledge knowing itself.

Sebastian Rödl will be visiting OSU September 13-14 for lectures and a workshop.

Please join us for discussion on Mondays at 4pm in Hagerty 159.

June 25: chapters 2-3, Propositions; Denial of Self-Consciousness
