

Student Name: _____ Nursing Unit: _____ Date: _____

Professionalism & Accountability	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Professionally prepared for clinical experience (Professional Appearance)
Punctual (Arrives to Clinical Site on Time)
Comes prepared to care for assigned patient (Pre-clinical information completed)
Interacts with all staff and patients in a professional and appropriate manner
Patient Safety	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Performs hand hygiene and utilizes appropriate PPE based on patient conditions
Provides patient privacy
Recognizes own limits & takes measures to ensure safe delivery of care
Is accountable for own decisions and actions
Accurately identifies patient prior to assessment or interventions (2 identifiers)
Applies measures to prevent falls or injury (Bed in low position, side rails, call light in reach)
Assesses 4 P's (pain, potty, position, possessions)
Responds promptly to cardiac alarms, bed alarms, and IV alarms
Communication	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Greets patient and family upon entry into the room
Informs patient and family of plan of care for the shift
Updates white board information each shift
Verbalizes actions (administration of medication, procedures, etc.)
Respectful to patients, family and staff
Empathetic
Asks clarifying questions when appropriate
Notify patient and family when leaving room
Provides clear, concise documentation in progress notes and EMR
Verbal telephone orders and critical labs are read back and verified
Delegates to staff as appropriate and monitors for completion
Effectively communicates critical information to appropriate members of the care team
Clinical Experience	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Follows appropriate policies and procedures for clinical skills
Able to complete an appropriate physical assessment based on clinical condition
Documents in an accurate, clear and concise manner
Prepares patient accordingly for procedures

Student Name: _____ Nursing Unit: _____ Date: _____

Follows proper technique for IV insertions
Follows proper technique for urinary catheter insertion
Follows proper protocol to prevent central line infections
Follows proper protocol for administration of blood products
Admission and Discharge	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Accurately completes home medication reconciliation process at admission and discharge
Obtains clear health history and completion of admission database
Evaluates patient for risks of suicide, abuse, and personal safety
Provides clear discharge instructions and has patient teach back
Medication Administration	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Able to identify purpose of medication
Performs appropriate pre-medication administration assessment based on medication
Identifies patient allergies
Completes 5 Rights (patient, drug, dose, route, time)
Completes 3 checks (when pulling medications, when preparing medications, when giving medications)
Properly labels medications
Administers accurate dose of medication
Monitors for expected outcome of medication administration and possible side effects
Documents medication administration appropriately
Patient Education	S	U	N/A	Instructor Comments
Provides written or video educational materials as appropriate
Provides education prior to procedures
Educates patients on purpose of medications, possible side effects, and what to report
Overall
Did the student perform satisfactorily during clinical experience <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No If no, provide documentation of specific examples of unsatisfactory performance, actions taken by the instructor to correct the performance, and resulting performance after remediation.

Instructor Signature: _____ Date: _____

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____