HOP PRODUCTION and MANAGEMENT FIELD DAY

TUESDAY July 24th, 2018 • 9am to 3 pm

Are you interested in starting to grow hops or want to learn more about better managing your hop yard? This field day, led by OSUE hops expert Brad Bergefurd, will cover a wide variety of material such as : start up costs, labor, economics, pest management, irrigation, as well as packaging and processing procedures. The morning session will be at Ayars Family Farm and the afternoon portion will take place at Zachrich Hop Yard down the road. A panel of hops farmers and OSU Hop Educators will talk about their farms and answer audience questions.

Cost: $25 (includes lunch)

Morning location:
4381 Rosedale Rd,
Mechanicsburg, OH 43044
