

Emma K. Foltz

foltz.136@buckeyemail.osu.edu // (614) 736-1348

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, The Ohio State University

expected May 2022

Major: Speech and Hearing Science

Minor: Disability Studies

4.0 GPA, Dean's List Autumn 2019-Autumn 2020

Canal Winchester High School, Canal Winchester, OH

May 2019

Salutatorian

4.0+ GPA

EXPERIENCE

Direct Service Provider

May 2019-present

I Am Boundless, Columbus, OH

- Work one-on-one with a teenager with severe Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Problem solve to develop specific skills and complete daily tasks together; encourage self-advocacy

SKILLS

- Experienced in working with youth with various levels of disability, including nonverbal and wheelchair-bound
- Highly organized and able to create order within a chaotic situation
- Experienced in interacting with others and problem-solving in critical situations

ACTIVITIES

Ohio State University

- Second-year member of the Mount Leadership Society Scholars program: a selective volunteer and leadership based group of students who work to make an impact on the community
 - Selected as a co-chair of the Recruitment, Outreach, and Welcome committee: responsibilities include organizing weekly meetings and creating events to engage incoming freshmen within the program as well as facilitating a mentoring program for first and second-year students
- Cru small-group leader for Bowen House: selected to lead girls in a weekly Bible study, as well as facilitate one-on-one and group relationships within the community and lead by example through behaviors and actions in everyday life