

Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens is your place in Columbus to connect with nature. The experience consists of four plant collections, two historic greenhouses and a ten-acre garden as well as exhibitions centered on plants and art.

The Conservatory also regularly offers educational classes and events. As a community-focused organization, there are many ways to visit the Conservatory.

GENERAL ADMISSION: 10AM–5PM
$23 AGES 13–59 • $19 SENIORS 60+
$15.50 CHILDREN 3–12 • FREE CHILDREN 2 & UNDER

PLUS TAX/CULTURE FEE. SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT ADMISSIONS: PRICES VARY

DISCOUNTS AVAILABLE FOR SERVICE MEMBERS, AAA MEMBERS AND COLLEGE STUDENTS

---

MUSEUMS FOR ALL: $3

GENERAL ADMISSION & SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT TICKETS.

A reduced ticket rate for individuals and family members in eligible programs with proof of participation:

SNAP • EBT • CareSource • Ohio Directions • Medicaid • W.I.C. • Molina

COMMUNITY DAYS: FREE

1st Sunday of every month for residents of Franklin County and the City of Columbus!
10am–5pm. Does not include Special Engagement evening hours.

ACCESS FAMILY MEMBERSHIP: $35 PLUS CULTURE FEE

Enjoy the benefits of being a member all year! A reduced rate family membership for families in eligible programs with proof of participation:

SNAP • EBT • CareSource • Ohio Directions • Medicaid • W.I.C. • Molina

LIBRARY MEMBERSHIPS: FREE

Check out a temporary membership card for FREE admission for up to two adults and six children at:

Martin Luther King, Shepard & Driving Park branches of the Columbus Metropolitan Library