

Steph Mizer, Senior Manager, Talent Acquisition Bio

Steph joined Ohio State in May 2012 and serves as a member of the Talent Acquisition leadership team for campus, overseeing recruitment for a variety of units. Prior to joining the world of higher education, Steph spent 17 years in the zoo industry. In her last truly “wild” position, she directed all human resources functions for the $50M Columbus Zoo and Aquarium organization including the Zoo, Zoombezi Bay, Safari Golf Club and the Wilds. She received her BA in psychology from Otterbein University and possesses the SHRM-CP certification.