What's new with OSUAP?

Bi-monthly meeting

What better way to start the new year than by highlighting past achievements and showcasing the skills you've mastered so far? One great way to do this is by creating Your Professional Profile. This free virtual workshop will be hosted by Stephanie Mizer, Sr. Manager, Talent Acquisition in the Office of Human Resources, January 10, noon-1 p.m. Follow the link below to add this event to your calendar, you won't want to miss it!

Mentorship Corner

The OSUAP Mentorship Working Group has been hosting a series of mentorship gatherings focused on resumes. Whether you are actively looking for a position, updating your position description or are preparing for an unexpected job change, these peer-led sessions are for you. Our last session will be held January 25 at noon, and will focus on Resume Review. To sign up for one of the sessions, complete the below survey. Space is limited to allow for interactive conversations during the gatherings.
