

Goals for Tar Hollow 4-H Camps

1. Allow all youth to have a fun and safe time at camp.
 - Outcome: Youth will not be harmed during camp programming
 - Outcome: Youth will respond via survey how they felt about camp, their counselor, and programming
 - Outcome: You will be inspired to return in following years
2. Enable experiential learning through programming.
 - Outcome: Youth will participate in hands-on learning and become part of the teaching process
 - Outcome: Youth will learn something new each camp
 - Outcome: Youth will be empowered to return home and share what they learned
3. Provide a number of varied activities that give youth an opportunity to try something new.
 - Outcome: Youth will have the option to participate in nature, recreation, arts and crafts, waterfront, and shooting sports (option only at a few camps)
 - Outcome: Youth will learn how to extend their boundaries
 - Outcome: Youth will provide feedback for future years on programming
4. Teach youth how to live independently through overnight camping.
 - Outcome: Youth will spend the night at camp with their peers, supervised by a counselor in each cabin
 - Outcome: Youth will learn how to combat and overcome homesickness
 - Outcome: Youth will learn valuable personal hygiene skills
5. Help youth establish relationships and build on their social skills.
 - Outcome: Counselors will help youth interact and develop friendships during programming
 - Outcome: Youth will learn how to manage conflict resolution
 - Outcome: Youth will learn team building through group activities
6. Provide supervision by staff and counselors, while also allowing youth to discover nature on their own.
 - Outcome: Youth will be supervised around all water areas
 - Outcome: Youth will have room to explore lake and creek areas with supervision
 - Outcome: Youth will go on hikes, participate in nature programming, and discover new animals
